

Housing Stability Plan

1. If you were to be set out of your current living arrangement, where would you go next and how would you get there?
2. Who are people you trust and can talk to about your situation?
3. Pack a suitcase or bag containing essential clothing, toiletries, medications- for yourself and your children
4. Make list of important numbers to have on hand: doctor, schools, shelter services, legal aid, remember you can always call 211 for referrals.
5. Gather all important documents for yourself and your children. Include social security cards, birth certificates, financial records, immigration paperwork, passports, etc.
